Occupational Interests

The Interest section assesses the relative interests between the six interest areas. The top three interests for Ms. Sample are shown here, along with the top three interests for this position. Note that Sally shares TWO top interests with the requirements of this position.

TOP THREE areas of interest for Sally Sample.

Indicated interest in activities associated with persuading others as well as presenting plans and concepts.

Indicated interest in activities such as helping people and promoting the welfare of others.

Indicated interest in activities using imagination, creativity and original ideas.

TOP THREE areas of interest for this position.

Indicated interest in activities associated with persuading others as well as presenting plans and concepts.

Indicated interest in activities such as organizing information or business procedures.

Indicated interest in activities such as helping people and promoting the welfare of others.

Ms. Sample scored highest in the Creative, Enterprising and People Service themes on the inventory. She is attracted to positions in which she can use her creative side in a business environment that allows for a high degree of contact with people. She appears to be drawn toward opportunities to solve problems in an innovative way. The chance to serve the needs of customers and the public in general also relates to this interest pattern.

With Enterprising as her primary area of interest, Ms. Sample is likely to seek out activities that involve entrepreneurial pursuits and leadership. Her focus, above all other areas of interest, lies in pursuing objectives in the lively world of business. These kinds of activities motivate her most effectively. Secondly, she is motivated by the interaction with others that comes with service to an interpersonal cause as demonstrated by her interest in People Service activities. Helping others or providing them with services may help to energize her in what she does at work. Finally, her interest in Creative activities rounds out her profile of interests. It promotes a concentration in creative expression, trying novel approaches and appreciating the process of innovation. Although this interest area is not as crucial to overall job satisfaction as her stronger interests, it does play a role.

Notice:

As discussed in the User's Guide for this product, this job pattern approach to matching individuals to a job provides information of great value and should be an important part of the placement decision. However, the user is reminded that the results from any test should never make up more than a third of the final decision.

Coaching Comments

Sally Sample scored outside the position match pattern in the following areas. When working with Sally Sample, you might consider the following:

THINKING

On the Verbal Skill scale Ms. Sample is below the designated Profile for this Job Match Pattern. This suggests that her ability to use a thorough vocabulary is less than the position typically requires and that she could have a problem with communicating ideas and concepts. Discussions with her should explore the possibility that for Ms. Sample, the position may be overly challenging and could lead to frustration and a reduction in her level of performance.

- Practice patience and acceptance when communicating with Ms. Sample, who requires instruction to be concrete and succinct.
- Do not become lost in your instructions with her, follow a straightforward and structured line of communication.
- When giving verbal instruction to her do not make the communication too lengthy. Break down complex instructions into individual goals. Have her report back to you after accomplishing one goal to receive the next one. Be very procedural.
- To achieve the best results from communications with Sally, review instructions after they have been given, focusing on a step-by-step understanding of the information.

Numeric Reasoning – Using numbers as a basis in reasoning and problem solving.

Job Pattern 3-6 Score 7

On the Numerical Reasoning scale Ms. Sample is above the job profile for this position. This suggests that her ability to analyze data as part of the decision making process is greater than the position typically requires and that she may not be sufficiently challenged to maintain her interest and/or level of performance.

- To avoid miscommunications, when Sally is expressing complex numerical information, coach her on proper communication techniques that emphasize a common level of expression.
- Ms. Sample is far more proficient in processing numerical information, than is required for this position. She may experience frustration if not sufficiently challenged, but if little opportunity exists to practice this skill, then focusing on her motivational level may be appropriate.
- Ms. Sample is very capable at assimilating data to make decisions, but may be frustrated by a lack of challenge in this area. Address frustrations and provide ways to challenge her abilities.
- When making budgetary decisions, Sally can rapidly see where resources can be reallocated or redistributed, but may require outside assignments to make use of this ability and avoid a lack in motivation.

BEHAVIORAL TRAITS

Job Pattern 4-6 Score 7

On the Energy Level scale Ms. Sample is above the designated Profile for this Job Match Pattern. This suggests that her drive and enthusiasm is greater than the position typically requires. Discussions with her should explore the possibility the position may not be sufficiently challenging to maintain her interest and/or level of performance.

- Sally will possibly appear bored at times with the level of effort required for this position. Provide structure to her daily program and reward her efficient efforts with time to "let off a little steam"; this kind of person is motivated to be very productive; make use of this energy in any creative and productive way.
- Expect her to complete assignments quickly, but be aware of her motivational level. Communicate with her about ways to make use of her high energy level, as this will help her avoid the boredom which can lead to a decrease in productivity.
- Ms. Sample may become less productive if she does not feel the job is challenging her high energy level. Create additional assignments that will enhance the productivity of her department and counsel her often to keep aware of her present motivational level.
- Ms. Sample will show a higher than average level of energy than is typical for this position. Provide a workload that fulfills her need for activity and provide an opportunity for her to create new and productive projects that benefit both her and the goals of her department.

Assertiveness – Tendency to take charge of people and situations. Leads more than follows.

Job Pattern 5-7 Score 8

Ms. Sample scored above the Profile for this position in the Assertiveness scale. She may find the environment of this position challenging in the area of how much control is appropriately exerted over others. While talking with her, determine her ability to practice greater diplomacy in her interpersonal relations.

- Ms. Sample tends to take charge in a group. Encourage her participation as a peer within the group and foster the ability to be patient with the opinions of others. Training in active listening may enhance her ability to cooperate with her team.
- Give Ms. Sample the opportunity to act as a follower, provide constant feedback in private and mentor her ability to let go of her control and responsibility for the actions and decisions of others.
- Sally's tendency to lead others needs to be tempered with a willingness to allow others a certain amount of control. Training that focuses on control issues may reveal a way to do this. Offer her the opportunity to lead the group as a reward for successful participation in such training.
- She expresses a preference for influencing the decisions of others. Act as a role model in your capacity as a group leader, demonstrating an authoritative yet democratic leadership style. Provide feedback concerning the effectiveness of your style and why it works in this team.

Attitude – Tendency to have a positive attitude regarding people and outcomes.

Job Pattern 6-8 Score 3

On the Attitude scale Ms. Sample is below the designated job profile for this position. This suggests that her general response to others will be pessimistic compared to the most successful individuals in this position. Discussions with her should explore the possibility that for Ms. Sample, the position may be overly challenging and could lead to frustration and a reduction in her level of performance.

- Ms. Sample demonstrates a tendency to be guarded when interacting with others. Building her basic trust with informal group activities can ease her doubt about the motivations of others. These activities can be as simple as lunchtime office meetings and informal discussions.
- Sally may demonstrate a negative attitude about her co-workers, customers, or her work. Provide her with an appropriate amount of time to discuss her feelings, in order to address her need for attention, but redirect her by providing a calm and cooperative expression in your behavior. Stress the necessity to focus on the tasks at hand and to accept responsibility for her own work.
- Sally may express doubts about the outcome of some projects, appearing pessimistic. While maintaining an empathetic manner, confront her on alternative solutions and in what way she will contribute to the group's success. This is best accomplished in team meetings.
- She may have a tendency to blame others for outcomes under her responsibility. Suggest discussion for a later time, in order to deflate some of her poor attitude, then give feedback on her performance and how to make positive steps toward more productive behavior.

Decisiveness – Uses available information to make decisions quickly.

Job Pattern 3-6 Score 8

On the Decisiveness scale, Ms. Sample is above the designated Job Match Pattern for this position. This suggests that she may act without a thorough understanding of the related details. Discussions with her should determine the extent of her spontaneity in decision-making, and consider if her effectiveness could be enhanced by more deliberation.

- It is important that the concept of patience in decision-making be stressed to Ms. Sample. Ask for deliberate and analytical processes in her decisions.
- Ms. Sample requires training in how to be more deliberate in decision-making. Emphasize the importance of analyzing information more thoroughly so that each decision can be more objective.
- Stress the importance of caution to her in order to avoid risk in decision making. The importance of deadlines is outweighed by the level of consequence inherent with making uninformed decisions.
- Sally may appear too spontaneous in her decision-making. Counsel her on the necessity to avoid unnecessary risk with cautious and deliberate decisions.

Independence – Tendency to be self-reliant, self-directed, to take independent action and make own decisions.

Job Pattern 2-5 Score 8

On the Independence scale Ms. Sample is above the designated job profile for this position. This suggests that her self-reliance is greater than the position typically requires and that she may become frustrated by the level of supervisory attention typical of this position. Discussions with her should explore the possibility the position may be too challenging to maintain her motivation and/or level of performance.

- Due to her self-reliance, you may rarely hear feedback from Sally. Maintain open communication with her to foster a more appropriate supervisory relationship. Listen to her when she appears frustrated and recognize her positive performance.
- When possible, allow Ms. Sample some breathing room, to let off the pressure she experiences from supervisory attention. Remain authoritative without becoming authoritarian and rigid.
- Sally's independence may create problems in the following of procedure. Reinforce compliance and regular, accurate performance. Reward her efforts to cooperate by allowing some independence in areas of lesser concern.
- Ms. Sample prefers to act independently and may become frustrated with supervisory attention. Handle with care but remain authoritative. Encourage a consultative relationship.

Objective Judgment – The ability to think clearly and be objective in decision-making.

Job Pattern 3-6 Score 2

On the Judgment scale Ms. Sample is below the designated job profile for this position. This suggests that her decision-making process is less objective than the position typically requires and that she could have a problem with the pragmatic nature of the job. Discussions with her should explore the possibility that for Ms. Sample, the position may be overly challenging and could lead to frustration and a reduction in her level of performance.

- Coach her on investigation of a greater variety of information sources when making decisions. Emphasize dealing with facts and other objective data before making any assumptions.
- Sally will require more time in making sound decisions. Review her efforts, guiding her on the avoidance of snap-decisions and making more informed decisions in the future. Reward all successes. Redirect and repeat training practices if not making progress.
- Ms. Sample requires greater structure in her decision making process. Coach her to avoid making assumptions and to be more thorough in gathering appropriate information in order to make more informed decisions.
- Coach Ms. Sample on how to be more objective when making decisions. Training should emphasize the step-by-step process of logical reasoning.

OCCUPATIONAL INTERESTS

Administrative duties are preferred most by those who match the Interest Pattern for this position. However, the activities associated with the Financial/Administrative theme are not among her primary three interest themes and may not motivate him as much.
